

Elmira District Community Living supports and advocates for individual's with Intellectual Disabilities, to live with dignity and respect, provide opportunities and participation for community inclusion and provides individualized services for those in our care.

Part-time support positions work mainly weekends and evenings with occasional overnights and weekday shifts available too. Must be comfortable with personal care, welcome community participation, promote an inclusive lifestyle and be flexible and creative.

For more information contact:
Laurie Thomson, Human Resources Manager
lthomson@elmiracl.com